

Your Billing Rights (continued)

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to send statements to you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone that we report you to that you have a question about your statement. And we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone that we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your statement is correct.

SPECIAL RULE FOR CREDIT CARDS —

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state, or, if not within your home state within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and (b) The purchase price must have been more than $50. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

IN CASE OF ERRORS/QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS —

Write us at the aforementioned address as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

Tell us your name and account number

Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

Non-VISA® Debit Transactions Processing Rules

United Credit Union enables non-VISA® debit transaction processing and does not require that all such transactions be authenticated by a PIN. A non-VISA® debit transaction may occur on your United Credit Union debit card through the following networks: STAR, PULSE, Alaska Option (A/O) or CO-OP. Below are examples to distinguish between a VISA® debit and non-VISA® debit transaction:

- To initiate a VISA® debit transaction at the point-of-sale, the cardholder signs a receipt, provides a card number (e.g., in e-commerce or mail/telephone order environment) or swipes the card through a point-of-sale terminal.
- To initiate a non-VISA® debit transaction, the cardholder enters a PIN at the point-of-sale terminal or, for certain bill payment transactions, provides the account number for an e-commerce or mail/telephone order transaction after clearly indicating a preference to route it as a non-VISA® transaction.

A non-VISA® debit transaction will not provide the zero liability protection benefit and, if a Rewards program is present, a non-VISA® debit transaction may not be an eligible Rewards transaction.

Provisions of the cardholder agreement relating only to VISA® transactions are inapplicable to non-VISA® transactions.

Pack the Bus

Once again United Credit Union is asking for your help to “Pack the Bus”. Starting July 6th, there will be lists available in all of our lobbies that detail the items that our schools are in need of. We will be collecting supplies through August 22nd. Any supplies collected at our branches will be given to the schools/organizations in that same community.

Keep Us Posted

Please keep us posted when you are traveling, have moved, changed phone numbers, email addresses, etc. It is very important we have current contact information. Current information helps us to contact you in case of possible fraud, compromises or with other vital information. Thank you!

Don't forget to follow us on Facebook to find out about UCU events and promotions!

A Word From the President

Things have been busy here at United Credit Union during the past quarter. As summer comes into full swing we have just finished our “80” hour loan promotion with great success. If you missed out don't worry; I have a feeling it may return before too long. The 80-hour promotion was significant in two respects: 1) We are continuing to celebrate our 80th year 2) We are loaning money to members and potential members which is our focus here at UCU.

We held our annual meeting on May 7th with a 80th birthday cake and some extra giveaways to celebrate. Thank you to everyone who came out and joined in the fun. Excitement would be a great word to describe our view on the rest of the year as we will continue to celebrate and grow with your help. Enjoy the summer and remember to visit your local branch for any financial needs you may have, or just stop in to say “Hi”.
